FROM THE VICAR

A busy, hopeful spring

Revd Helen Marsh

As the evenings draw out, St Aidan's is full of life again. The Little Wrens toddler group has doubled in size since January, the choir has three new members, and the churchyard is bright with the bulbs our volunteers planted in the autumn.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, 18 February, and our Lent study group meets at the vicarage on Thursday afternoons. Everyone is welcome, whether you come every week or just once.

Four hundred bulbs went in along Church Lane last November. Thank you to the Saturday team.

Easter Day falls on 5 April this year. Our services are listed in the diary, and the Easter flowers list is at the back of church if you would like to give flowers in memory of someone you love.

Thank you, as ever, for all you give to this parish in time, prayer and cake.

*"Whether you come every week or just once,
you are welcome here."*

BUILDING NEWS

Heating appeal passes £18,000

Our appeal to replace the 40-year-old boiler has now raised £18,240 of the £25,000 we need. That includes £4,100 from the Christmas Fair and a grant from the Wrenford Village Trust.

Work is planned for the summer so the church is warm by the autumn. Gift Aid envelopes are at the back of church, or speak to our treasurer, Tom Okafor.

St Aidan's from the south lawn. The new boiler will sit in the old vestry.

CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

Wrens Club reading challenge

Last summer 31 children took part in the Wrens Club reading challenge and read 412 books between them. This year's challenge starts in July with a story trail around the churchyard.

Certificates from last year are ready to collect from the parish office.

SAVE THE DATE

Summer Fair: Saturday 13 June

This year's fair will be in the vicarage garden from 12 noon to 4 pm, with the tombola, plant stall, dog show and cream teas. Money raised will go to the heating appeal.

We need helpers to set up on the Friday evening and to run the cake stall. Please add your name to the list in the porch.

Last year's fair raised £3,950. Can we beat it?

Coffee morning moves to Tuesdays

From March our coffee morning moves to Tuesdays, 10 am to 12 noon in the church hall. Homemade cakes, fair-trade coffee and good company, all for £2.

LITTLE WRENS

Story time for the youngest

Little Wrens, our group for babies, toddlers and their grown-ups, now meets every Wednesday at 9.15 am in the church hall. There are stories, songs and toys, and coffee for the grown-ups.

It costs £1 a family and you do not need to book. New helpers who enjoy reading aloud are very welcome.

The Little Wrens book box now has over 200 picture books, all donated.

RECIPE CORNER

Margaret's simnel cake

Margaret Bell's simnel cake has been a Mothering Sunday favourite for thirty years. She has kindly shared her recipe, with her tips for the eleven marzipan balls, on the parish website.

Slices will be on sale after the Mothering Sunday service, with all proceeds going to the Wrens Club.
