

Client intake checklist

Publisher file rescue. Fill this in on a call with the client, or send it to them before you quote. Click a box to tick it.

1. About the client

Organisation
Contact name and role
Email and phone
Who approves and pays the invoice
Number of sites (schools, parishes, offices)
How they found you

2. The Publisher files

Where the files are now (PC, shared drive, USB stick, cloud folder)
Rough number of .pub files
Years covered
Publisher versions, if known
Files that already will not open
Other files to include (Word, pictures)? Priced separately

- ☐ Client can still open some files in Publisher (useful for comparing results)
- ☐ Keep the same folder structure in the PDF archive
- ☐ Client has a list or examples of their most-used layouts

3. What they want

- ☐ PDF archive: searchable PDFs, preview pictures, index spreadsheet, contact sheet
- ☐ Rebuilt templates (list them below, most important first)
- ☐ Editing program: Word / PowerPoint / Google Docs / LibreOffice (circle)
- ☐ Paper size: A4 / Letter (circle)
- ☐ Printing: office printer / folded booklet / print shop (circle)

Template	Example file name, and how often it is used

Template 4
Template 5

4. Branding and fonts

- ☐ Logo file received (best: PNG with a clear background, or SVG)
- ☐ Colours agreed (hex codes, or 'match the old newsletter')
- ☐ Special fonts listed. If the client has no licence for a font, we use a free or standard substitute and say so in the delivery note
- ☐ Photos they have permission to reuse (especially photos of children)

5. Privacy and file handling

- ☐ Client confirms they may share these files with you for this work
- ☐ Files may contain personal details (names, addresses, photos); handled privately and never shared
- ☐ Transfer method agreed (shared folder link, not email attachments for big archives)
- ☐ Client agrees that you delete every copy within 7 days of delivery, and will confirm in writing
- ☐ Files or folders that must not be opened are listed: _____
